PORT 105 Fall 2014 - Comments

002 We moved at a somewhat-fast pace in the class, which I thought was great. It forced us pick things up quickly and got us actually conversing and expressing, which doesn't really happen in 100-level language classes. And the instructor's Brazilian accent is perfect (for all I can tell) which helps SO MUCH for me when learning a language.

002 The only thing would be to have some sort of limit on tries for the homework. It was easy to get 100% by doing each thing 50 times until we got them all right. Having a limit of 5 or so would force the students to try harder and make sure they understand why they type in the answer they do.

002 Jordan is a student instructor but he is awesome! He definitely knows his Portuguese, he speaks it fluently and perfectly and really helps us Spanish speakers with common faux pas.

002 Great Class. Great Instructor

---

002 Great instructor. He really helped us out and cared for the class.

---

002 Loved this class and Jordan Jones was great!

002 Jordan Jones does a very good job at making the class feel scheduled, yet relaxed without making the students feel pressured or rushed. He does a good job at encouraging a great learning atmosphere and he is devoted to his teaching. He not only established a learning atmosphere but also helped establish friendly and open interactions and communications with the other students and with himself. Definitely not just trying to teach the material, Jordan seeks to make the students better people who are closer to Christ.

002 Sorry, I thought the second to last question was about the instructor :) Loved this class! Jordan was awesome in teaching us portuguese. His teaching style was effective and always wanted feedback in how he could be a better teacher and help us learn and apply better too. It was a fun and casual atmosphere making asking questions very easy.

002 Classes with Jordan were fun and instructive. You could always tell he had prepared for the lesson. I loved how he always managed to stick to the target language, providing explanations of what certain words meant without resorting to translation. The environment he helped creat in the class was great.
